

Look at this graph.

It shows the favourite colours chosen by a group of children.

Can you answer the two-step questions about the graph?

1. How many more children chose orange than chose blue?
2. How many more children would need to choose green to make it the most popular colour?
3. How many children chose yellow, blue and red altogether?
4. How many children were asked about their favourite colour in total?